OMAHA BANKERS WAITING

Want a Ruling on Provisions of the Income Tax Law.

CONFUSED OVER SOME POINTS

Supposed to Deduct a Per Cent from All Coupous, Except Muntetpal, When Presented for Collection.

Omaha bankers are waiting for some ruling on a provision of the income tax law which they say is confusing. The law goes into effect November 1. Bankers may they are expected to deduct 1 percent for income tax from all coupons on all obnds except municipal when such coupons are presented to them for col-This would mean that anyone presenting, say, a $500 coupon on an eastern bond due any day after November and desiring to cash it at a local bank, would receive but $495, while the bank here must hold the other & to be turned in as income tax, or be responsible for it. Eastern banks are notifying their cor respondents and customers to this effect The National City bank of Chicago has sent the following to its correspondents and customers throughout the country including the banks in Omaha:

Accepted for Collection.

Accepted for Collection.

Please be advised that all coupon maturing on and after November 1, 1813, and until further notice, will be accepted by this bank only for collection.

Under the provision of the federal income tax law, which is federate as of November 1, 1813, we do not care to undertake giving credit for coupons until their final payment at such pince deignated for presentation.

The law referred to provides that deduction of the normal tax is to be withheld at the place of the payment of any of any coupon, or "at the so'urce," and pending such payment we cannot definitely credit such proceeds.

GRAND ISLAND BANK CLERK HOAXED BY FRIENDS

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 29,-(Spe cial.)-"Oh, you bungalow!" the glad remark was injected into a conversation with his intended bride by Mr. Fred Dryer, a bank clerk, upon receiving a telegram from the land office to the eifect that he had drawn No. 1 at North Platte. Furthermore, the finesi 19 cent cigars were on tap just as soon as he could phone an order to his tobacconist and delivery could be made. And that tobocconist was "soon." It meant $12.00 to him, despite the fact that the young man lan't at all impecunious. Whose heart should not be glad? Why should not friends come in and smoke with one Or what was unnatural in so many calling up on the 'phone, even though the calls came with systematic precision, was before he received the "telegram."

YORK POSTMASTERSHIP
